RE: [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Rogers:

Our client has recently contacted us again regarding his concerns about Reverend Paul Shanley's potential involvement with children in his work at the Leo House in New York City. [REDACTED] insists that Reverend Shanley not only works at the Leo House, but is also the director. Since the Leo House offers housing to transients, including families, he remains fearful that guests may leave their children in Reverend Shanley's care believing that they could trust Reverend Shanley. This greatly troubles [REDACTED] because he does not want any other children to be a victim of Rev. Shanley's sexual abuse. I have enclosed a copy of a brochure of the Leo House which you may find helpful.

At your earliest convenience, would you please contact me regarding this matter.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in this regard.

Very truly yours,

Laurence E. Hardoon
