

Father Colman King

Word was received this week of the death of Father Colman King in Ireland.

Father King was pastor of Pocatello's St. Anthony's Parish from 1929 to 1939 and was well known in local religious, civic, and social circles of those days. He is remembered by many people of all religious denominations.

He also served as pastor in Bonners Ferry and Kellogg, and for many years was chaplain at Providence Hospital in Wallace.

Father King retired in 1970 after 48 years of work in the Diocese of Boise, which takes in the entire State of Idaho. After retirement, he lived in Co. Galway, Ireland, where he died Sept. 22. Mass of the Resurrection will be offered Monday at 7 p.m. in St. Anthony's Church for his soul.
